

APRIL EDITION

OHS DRAMA NEWSLETTER

UPCOMING EVENTS

- April 6:
Improv Show at 7pm
in the Auditorium and Culture Festival
- April 16: Titanic the Musical
Tickets on sale!
- April 22:
Scott's Run Cleanup
Hike (2-5 PM)

Becky Woolf, Head Editor

Samba Pathak, Associate Editor

Vinee Verma, Associate Editor

Vanessa Gelinias, Theatre Arts Director

OHS Thespian Officers

www.oaktondrama.org | newsletter@oaktondrama.org

How Are Drama 1's Silent Movies?

Becky Woolf

Silent movies are great. Actors don't need to memorize any lines, and no one has to worry about not being heard over background noise. However, they can be pretty challenging. Actors have to communicate their messages through gestures and facial expressions alone, and a lot of editing is needed to add in translation screens. The Drama 1 classes have been working hard to create their own silent films.

"I'm not done." -Anonymous Freshman Student

"I'm not done. I'm still editing. It's true." -Ryan Gaffney

"We put our bloopers in our video which is great." -Grace Roti

How Did Drama 2 Spend Spring Break?

Vinee Verma

"I did all my driving lessons and got my license!! Hide any pets or small children cause Max Branciforte is on the road"- Max Branciforte, Sophomore

"Over break, I went to Las Vegas. It was tons of fun! I also went on a day trip hiking in Zion and rode ATVs." - Hannah Hunt, Sophomore

"I went to Florida with my church youth group and we biked 165 miles from Daytona Beach to Disney world. It was definitely my favorite spring break." -Elizabeth Paul, Sophomore

"I went to Disneyland in Orlando, Florida and went to the Disney animal park and universal studios!" - Rohan Nanduri, Sophomore

My Line in the Break-down!

Samba Pathak

Drama 3 and 4 have been exploring different plays and how to break down a scene. Some of the students shared some of their favorite lines from plays with us:

Maxmine Aymope- "Jeezum crow!"

Elisabeth Dupuy- "These breadsticks are fabulous!"

Eleanor Jacobson- "I'm planning to start my family at sixty, I heard there's a hormone in Brazil..."

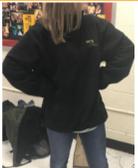

Vanessa Rivera- "Why is she wearing a dish towel on her head?"

Bella Panciocco- "Thanks for not calling me the magician."

Carolyn Best- "...Either you shave your legs or you don't."

Diego Maldonado- "As you ramble through life, whatever be your goal, keep your eye on the donut, and not the hole."

Oakton Theatre Spirit Wear

NEW Cougar Paw Popsockets $10.00	Oakton Theatre 1/4 zip Pullover $30.00	Oakton Theatre Drawstring Bags $15.00

Oakton Drama Sweatpants $20.00	3/4 zip Fleece Sweatshirts $35.00 $30.00	Drama Mama T-Shirt $15.00

Previous Oakton Theatre Performance Shirts $40.00 $5.00	Gray Theatre T-Shirt $10.00	Oakton H.S. Magnets $40.00 $5.00